

Meeting Minutes 5/18/2016

The meeting was called to order at 7:15 p.m. by Vice President Jeanne Telaak while Katie was away at the Western Book Conference. Jeanne had everyone introduce themselves. Jeanne also reminded members that tickets for the barn tour were available for purchase.

Pam Greer announced that Katie received a 2nd place award in the novice writer's division at the Western Book Conference. Katie is to be congratulated for her accomplishment.

Ann Blankenship reminded folks about the Dru Barner Fun Ride coming up on May 29. She explained that right now Dru Barner is in total devastation and much work will need to be done to make it ready for the ride. Tractor work is in the works, but folks were urged to please come and help with the clean-up.

Steve Lenheim asked if anyone heard anymore about the evacuation meeting that was suppose to take place this year. He also noted that Gold Rush Days will be in September.

The meeting adjourned at 7:38 p.m.

All the best,
Charlotte
