

Meeting Minutes 6/15/2016

The meeting was called to order at 7:04 p.m. by President Katie Yaranon. She announced the obstacle clinic on Saturday, June 18, at Seducente Ranch in Pilot Hill. Help was solicited for set-up. Owner, Leslie Provost, gave directions to their ranch, and Ron said he could take riders on nearby trails after the clinic. They let folks also know that there will also be a trainer, Anna Jacobs, in attendance at the clinic.

Claudia Gibbens, treasurer, gave the financial report for the barn tour fundraiser. The net profit was $936.72. Comments from members were quite positive.

Ann Blankenship gave an overview of the EDETF Dru Barner fun ride in May. Interestingly, Ann said the riders came from out of the area for the ride versus local participation. She also announced the annual barbecue which will be held at her house on Saturday, June 25. She reminded folks to also plan for their poker ride in October.

Heidi Babcock said there will be a saddle fitting clinic in Northern California sometime the end of August given by Crest Ridge Saddlery. Location, etc., to be announced. Cost would be $75-125 depending on clinic attendance.

Doug Avery invited folks to his ranch for a 4th of July party. He said to just bring a dish to share. He is also selling his 3-horse trailer (a Featherlite). He was encouraged to place his ad in the DHA Trading Post.

The meeting adjourned at 7:40 p.m.

All the best,
Charlotte
